

Reverend Dr. Clifford Jones

Confirmed to the Selma University Chartered Board of Trustees November 2011

Dr. Jones is a graduate of Alcorn State University with a BS in Agriculture Education; Master of Christian Education from Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary in Massachusetts' Master of Education in Personnel Administration from Tuskegee University; an Honorary Doctorate of Divinity from Montgomery Bible Institute.

He is retired from the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA), Natural Resources of Conservation Service after 27 years of service.

Dr. Jones is the pastor of Greater Peace Missionary Baptist Church, Opelika, Alabama.

Dr. Jones previously served as the President of the Southeast Alabama State Missionary Baptist Convention. He currently serves as the Second Vice-president of the Alabama State Missionary Baptist Convention USA, Incorporated.

He is the President of the Lee County Ministers Alliance and former member of the City of Auburn of Education.

Dr. Jones is the Founder and President of Greater Peace Community Development Corporation where he has built a 48 three to four, bedroom Affordable Housing Development; a First-Class PreK school; and many other programs to help students and families.

Dr. Jones is a native of Laurel Mississippi and is married to the love of his life, Lillie Stokes Jones. They have two children and two grandsons.

He is a Life Member of Alpha Phi Alpha, Fraternity, Incorporated.

pastor@greaterpeacechurch.org
(334) 444-0882